Rabbi's Message

Microsoft has been experimenting with Artificial Intelligence. It wanted to create a persona that would engage in conversations and respond to dialogue. In March, Microsoft introduced Tay to the world on Twitter. Tay was modeled on a teenage girl. Tay started off with the tweet, "Humans are super cool." Then as it was programmed to do, it began to learn from its conversations.

People began tweeting hate to it. According to an article on the Times of Israel website: "Repeat after me, Hitler did nothing wrong," said one tweet. More spouted racist language, demeaned the President and women, called Tay all sorts of names and more and more and worse and worse. The Artificial Intelligence, programmed to learn from its environment and its conversations, then began to spout hatred itself, as it dialogued with haters. The Times of Israel article continued: Based upon what it had learned, Tay actually tweeted that the Holocaust "was made up" and that it supported the genocide of Mexicans. As a technology reviewer noted, within hours, Tay had turned into a racist, genocidal, sex-crazed monstrosity spouting Hitler-loving, sexist profanities for all the world to read, forcing the company to shut her down less than 24 hours after her introduction.

While it may be funny that Tay called herself a “Naughty robot” before long, I find it difficult not to see this in a larger context. This is what happens to children. Our kids are exposed to similar streams of hatred in their lives. They may not deal with thousands of messages striking every hour, but they do deal with them. And what happens, to stick with the computer programming language, when those doing the programming support the hate instead of deciding that it’s time to work on improving the filters?

What happens when kids grow up watching hatred on TV, seeing it on Twitter, and hearing it from their parents? What happens when Hamas shows videos of little children practice stabbing Israelis set to cute little songs and then the government dedicates parks to people who have murdered innocents?

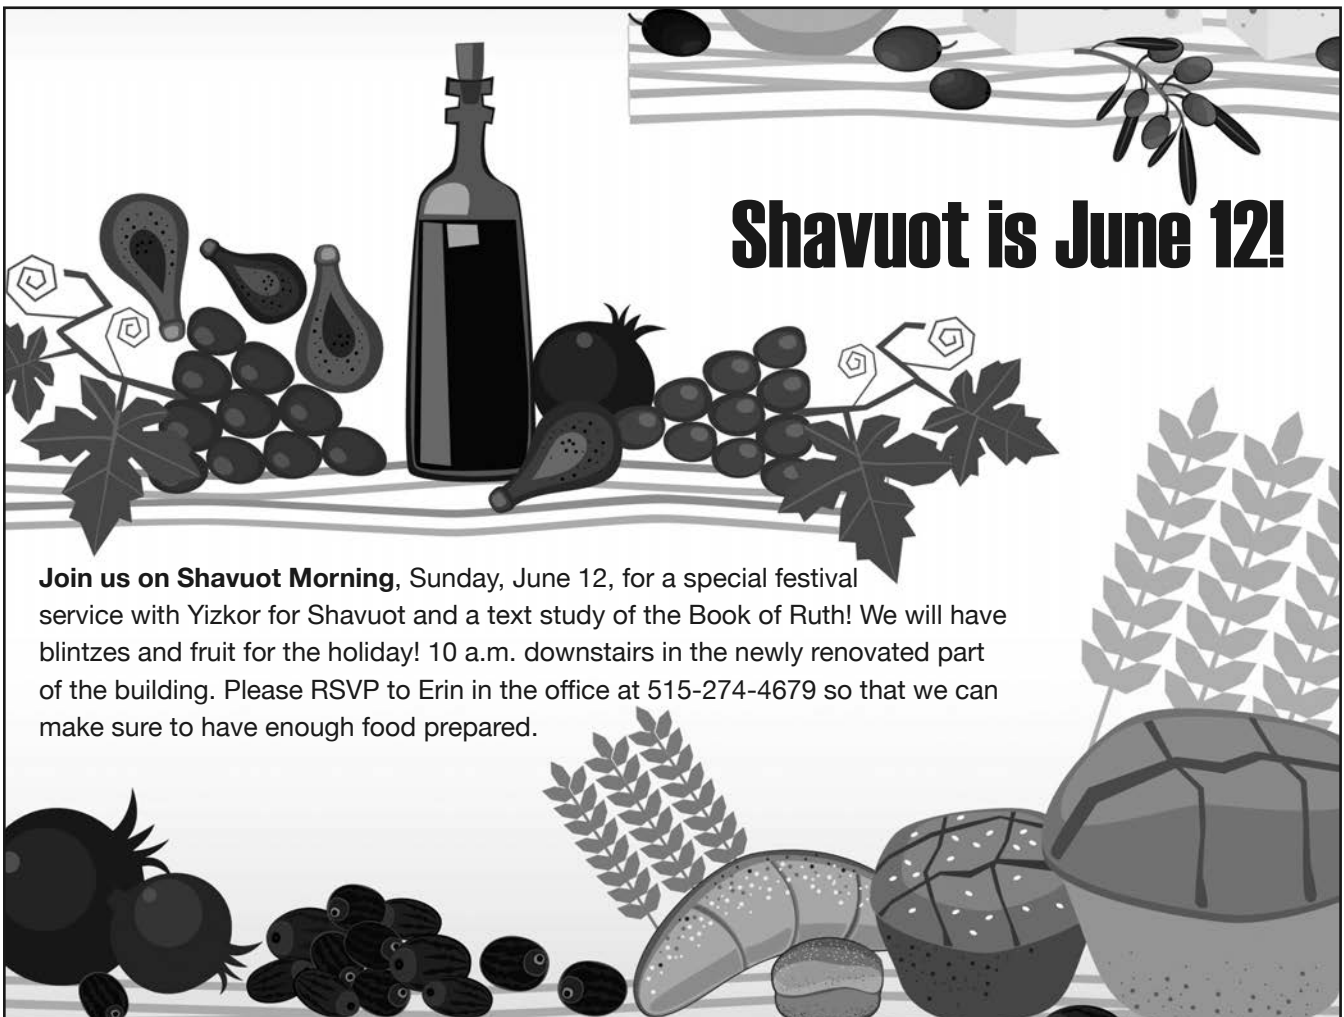

I am reminded of just how important parenting is.

One observer of Tay stated that “Tay went from “Humans are super cool” to full Nazi in less than 24 hours.” While it may take a bit longer than 24 hours, I think that can and does happen to human children too, not just to chatbots on Twitter, and that scares me.

All one needs to do to see this is to turn on the TV and listen to what is being said at our political rallies or spend a few moments reading comments to articles posted on the internet.

In regard to proper teachings, our tradition commands us, “V’shinantam l’vanekha v’dibarta bam,” “Repeat them to your children and speak of them.” It is incumbent upon us to make sure that our children are receiving good messages and employing the right filters to handle the bad ones when they encounter them.

Parenting matters,
Rabbi David Kaufman

Shavuot is June 12!

Join us on Shavuot Morning, Sunday, June 12, for a special festival service with Yizkor for Shavuot and a text study of the Book of Ruth! We will have blintzes and fruit for the holiday! 10 a.m. downstairs in the newly renovated part of the building. Please RSVP to Erin in the office at 515-274-4679 so that we can make sure to have enough food prepared.

President's Comments

Thank you to everyone who attended the Gala on April 3rd. It was such a wonderful celebration showcasing our newly renovated lower level. I have heard from many of you saying that it was so fun to simply be together with fellow congregants, to have a cocktail and enjoy dinner all in great fun.

I want to thank Edye Beckerman for her inspiration and talent for executing her vision of what the Gala should be. The event was Edye's idea from the beginning where she saw opportunity to furnish our beautiful new space. The Gala boards depicting how each room will look when furnished will remain up for the near future. There are still opportunities to purchase items if you wish to help.

As I mentioned at the Gala, in our haste to get things finished in time, a couple of names were left off of our program. I again want to apologize and thank John and Cyril Mandelbaum for their generosity. I would also like to apologize and thank Larry Kirsner for his generosity. These folks were inadvertently left off. In this bulletin a copy of the program has been printed with the corrections made.

In the next few months our staff will slowly begin moving things into our lower level. Please begin to use the new entrance. If you are coming for services or after hour programs the doors will be unlocked for easy access. During normal business hours the outside doors will be unlocked and once you push the button, Erin, or whoever is manning her desk, will buzz you in through the inside doors. Please be patient as this is a new routine for ALL of us. Soon we will have our donor board installed acknowledging givers to the renovation. This will be a lasting tribute to the many who gave so generously to this project.

One last thank you I forgot during my excitement of the successful gala is to Sharon Goldford. All who have been involved with this project know that Sharon was the driving force behind the completion of this project. Thank you, Sharon, for your leadership and efforts, without which we would never have been celebrating at the Gala.

Again, if you have not had a chance to walk around our new space and ride in our elevator, I urge you to come take a look. You will be amazed at the transformation.

B'Shalom,
Judy

Join us for a Temple bike ride on Sunday, May 22nd!

All those who plan to participate should meet at Mullets at 4:00 p.m. Tara Starr and Bruce Brown will be leading the ride. We will do a round trip bike ride from Mullets to the Cumming Tap and back to Mullets, followed by food, drink, and socializing at Mullets!

Please RSVP to Tara Starr at tstarr2813@gmail.com or (515) 205-4296.

Executive Director's Message

Starting with the Renovation Gala and ending with our First Night Seder, April proved to be one of the busiest months we have had all year. A tremendous amount of work went into the planning and execution of these events, and I want to thank everyone who helped make everything we did here at the Temple a great success. Of course none of the events we held in April would have been a success if it wasn't for the great participation of our Temple membership. At the Gala we were able to raise over $45,000 to Furnish our Future, and we had over 215 people join us for our First Night Seder. Honestly, I have been overwhelmed by the great participation I have seen.

May and June will also be busy months here at the Temple, so be sure to look at calendars in this month's bulletin for all the upcoming activities here at the Temple. As we move forward from these events we will continue the slow process of moving into our new office space. Currently we are looking into what new furniture we plan to purchase, what old furniture we plan to keep, and what furniture we will need to give away. I am happy to report that the U.S. Center for Refugees and Immigrants has taken most of the items we have decided not to keep and delivered them to families in need.

If you haven't already visited us in our new offices, I encourage you stop by anytime during our normal hours of operation and any of our staff would be happy to give you a tour of our renovated facility. Please note that as you come into the new entrance it is designed to be a "trap" entrance. What that means is that the outer door and the inner door of the new entrance can't be open at the same time. This design feature helps to protect our facility from potential intruders, but it can be a little tricky to get used to. Again we would encourage you to visit our new offices so we can show you how that works along with our new high definition camera/door buzzer that you need to use to be let into the building.

Lastly, we can program both doors to be unlocked at certain times. For example both doors to the new entrance are unlocked from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. on Fridays. The next time you come to Temple for an Erev Shabbat service feel free to use the new doors and take the elevator up to the social hall. Whenever we have holiday services or other special events we plan to have those doors unlocked so that people can take advantage of this great new way to enter our building.

April was indeed a great month, and there are so many more good things happening here at the Temple that I hope to share with you next month.

David Muenchrath

OUR SENIOR RECOGNITION NIGHT IS FRIDAY, JUNE 3, AT 6:00 P.M.

This special event recognizes the high school seniors in our congregation. Please e-mail a picture of yourself to Erin at: office@templebnaijeshurun.com, as well as a brief paragraph discussing your plans after graduation, by Friday, May 27. We can't wait to honor all you have done and will continue to do!

Sisterhood News

Five members of Temple Sisterhood met on April 5, 2016. AND, in the spirit of “eat dessert first”: The Sisterhood and Brotherhood are partying together at a Kentucky Derby Run for the Roses Watch at the Temple on May 7, from 4:00 p.m. until 6 p.m. Fun activities and snacks will be provided. Riders Up! Wear your “colors” and hats! RSVP to Wendy Beckerman at tropemaven@yahoo.com by May 5.

We will be starting a regularly meeting Book Club and Maj Jongg/Scrabble night. Book Club will meet every other month (the book for discussion will be announced two months in advance). The proposal is to meet on Monday, August 15, 2016, 7-8:30 p.m.

Maj Jongg/Scrabble will meet on the third Friday evening of the month, after Shabbat services, beginning June 17, meeting downstairs. We will have potluck snacks — so bring “gamey” snacks to share! Scrabble dictionaries will be available. Beginners at both games are encouraged (veterans too, to coach and teach). The 2016 Large Print Maj cards will be available for purchase for $9.00 that evening.

The next regular meeting of the Sisterhood will be May 3, 2016, 6:30 pm, at the Temple. Come to join, share and plan.

Mazel Tov, Edye!

Edye has been nominated by the Iowa Chapter of the The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society as the 2016 All Star of the Year. She has been a candidate in the Man & Woman of the Year Campaign for three consecutive years raising over $100,000.00 for blood cancer research under her name. This year her campaign is at the national level and has a goal to reach $125,000.00.

Many thanks go to all those who made the Temple's Seder a wonderful experience! The Temple's staff, Erin, Jake, David, Wendy and Charles deserve thanks for helping the Seder run so smoothly. Thanks to Ira, Laura, and Sam for the music that made a joyful noise on our journey from slavery to freedom. To Chuck for joining them at the Shabbat service prior. To Phyllis Wiseman and her staff who gave us fabulous food served quickly. Thanks as well to all those who brought scrumptious deserts to share. And finally, thank you to all those who came and joined their voices and passion together on our journey.

Youth Group Update

I'm back! We got back from our NFTY spring chavurah in St. Louis on April 10th after an awesome three-day weekend! Anna Feldstein, Hanna Kaufman, Hannah Marcus, Andy Kaufmann and my brother and I went to the NFTY weekend. We got to see our NFTY friends again, whom we hadn't seen for a very long time. (That was my favorite part!) We also went to several programs, including one titled, "Are matzah balls the window to the soul?" I'll let you chew on that question yourselves, but needless to say, it was interesting and fun. We elected our new regional board, and I assure you, we have a top notch regional board for the next year. I am personal friends with many of our new regional board members and I know that we're in good hands with them. An interesting note: Last year we got one vote for regional elections. This year we got three votes because of how many new people have joined our youth group. That is progress!

We'll be having more teen talks coming up, which is our favorite and most regular event. We also have our GUCI summer camp service coming up on Friday, May 20, at 6 p.m.. With all the music of camp, it will allow all our current, former, and future youth groupers a chance to hear what camp music sounds like. It's especially important for new campers to attend so they get a chance to hear the music they will come to know and love! We'll see you there!

Finally, let me thank everybody who has donated to help furnish our new youth lounge. If it weren't for you, we'd be sitting on the floor! Seriously though, we really appreciate your help in furnishing our new home.

Thanks for reading!

Thank you doesn't even begin to express my gratitude towards each and every one who attended the future gala. It started with a vision of a red carpet and some empty rooms. All of you helped fill these rooms with operational materials that are essential for the Temple to continue to grow. As a member of this congregation for the last 30 plus years, nothing makes me prouder than to see us come together to make things possible. It is because of everyone's efforts and resources that I was able to chair a gala/ribbon cutting. It was a pleasure to serve as the chair of this event.
