

WRJ
Lilith

Salons

Sponsored by TBJ Sisterhood

More free-flowing than a book club, more intimate than a lecture, quarterly discussions are inspired by articles and short stories from Lilith magazine.

Lilith Salons are held in over 90 cities around the world and are informal discussion groups springing from articles, memoir, and current issues in Lilith Magazine. Lilith is an independent, Jewish & frankly feminist magazine published since 1976. It charts Jewish women's lives with exuberance, rigor, affection, subversion, and style. According to earliest records, Lilith was the first woman, created even before Eve. She told Adam, "We are equal because we are created from the same earth."

Join us for our next Lilith Salon on Saturday, April 25, 2020
from 5:30p-8p at Temple B'nai Jeshurun

At this Lilith Salon, we will discuss the Winter 2020 issue of Lilith, focusing on the following articles:

- "Beauty Parlor Seder" — With her mom's drinking, depression and food stamps, nothing feels conventional about the way they are Jewish.
- "Recreational DNA Testing and Its Uninvited Consequences" — Amateur ancestry searches can bring unwelcome, life-changing surprises. An interview with Libby Copeland suggests that this means the end of family secrets.

Come hungry for discussion and dinner!
Salad and a light meal will be served.

Hard copies of the articles being used will be available at the Temple office but are also available online. Current and back issues of Lilith are available at:
www.lilith.org.

Contact Samantha at skempcarlin@gmail.com for more information or to be added to the e-mail list for future salons!