Leadership Training for Jewish Young Adults | First Session: October 25, 1:30 pm ET

Join our virtual platform where dedicated young adults from Israel, Budapest and the US meet for professional leadership training, informal Jewish education, and social networking.

As a first phase, we are inviting you to take part in our virtual sessions led by expert facilitators, where we interactively explore current topics relevant to Jewish community building and self-growth.

Phase 2 includes a leadership seminar in Israel and Budapest, planned for Fall 2021 and followed by Phase 3 where your dream projects will become a reality.

First Session:

October 25, 1:30 pm ET

1. Introduction: Jewish journeys and dilemmas around our P2G family

Following Sessions:

2. December 6 - Jewish leadership.

3. Jan 24 - why be part of a Jewish community?

4. March 21 - Intergenerational challenges and gender roles in the modern Jewish family/community.

5. May 16 - Attitudes towards Israel among young Jews.

6. June 13 - Tikkun Olam and me.

Israel Seminar:

Our online series will culminate in a 7-8 days leadership seminar in the Western Galilee and Budapest, in the fall of 2021.

So, if you are between the ages of 25-45, and want to be part of a new and exciting GLOCAL Jewish community, your place is with us!
