Shabbat Bechukotai Torah - Leviticus 26:3-11

26:3] If you follow My laws and faithfully observe My commandments, 4] I will grant your rains in their season, so that the earth shall yield its produce and the trees of the field their fruit. 5] Your threshing shall overtake the vintage, and your vintage shall overtake the sowing; you shall eat your fill of bread and dwell securely in your land. 6] I will grant peace in the land, and you shall lie down untroubled by anyone; I will give the land espite from vicious beasts, and no sword shall cross your land. 7] [Your army] shall give chase to your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. 8] Five of you shall give chase to a hundred, and a hundred of you shall give chase to ten thousand; your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. 9] I will look with favor upon you, and make you fertile and multiply you; and I will maintain My covenant with you. 10] You shall eat old grain long stored, and you shall have to clear out the old to make room for the new. 11] I will establish My abode in your midst, and I will not spurn you.

Daftarah Jeremiah 16:19-17:3

16:19] Eternal One, my strength and my stronghold, my refuge in time of trouble! Nations from the ends of earth shall come to You and say, "Our ancestors inherited false gods, empty and utterly useless!"

20] How can human beings make gods? They are not gods at all! 21] Therefore, I am letting them know: once and for all I will make them know My might and power— and they shall know that I am called the Eternal.

17:1] Judah's sin is inscribed with an iron pen, engraved with a diamond point on the tablet of their hearts and the horns of their altars, 2] to remind their children of their altars and sacred poles near leafy trees, on the high hills.

3] I will give your wealth, all your treasures, as spoil to a country bumpkin, the Hararite, because of the sin of your high places throughout your borders. 4] You yourself will lose the heritage I gave you, and I will make you serve your enemies in a land you do not know: for you have kindled the flame of My wrath, zooto burn a long time.
