The Significance of Yizkor

Yizkor was originally a prayer that appears to have its origins in Germany. Although the origins of Yizkor and its recitations are unclear, its primary purpose was to commemorate the Jewish martyrs slain during the First and Second Crusades. In time, this origin was forgotten, but the warmth and nostalgia of remembrance grew important. Prayers of remembrance became a part of Jewish ritual.

Few ceremonies in Jewish life are more powerful in meaning than the Memorial Service. It is a time to remember those loved ones who have passed beyond the threshold of life and into the great space of eternity. It is a time to thank God for the lives of our loved ones no longer with us. It is a time to give homage to those who made the world a better place because they lived in it. It is a time to strengthen the bonds between the here and the hereafter in the hearts and minds of those who survive their departed.

The dust returns to the earth, but the spirit returns to God who gave it.

Dedicated to

Those who have passed away but cannot be forgotten...Our loved ones and the martyrs of our people. May their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life.

EACH OF US HAS A NAME

Each of us has a name
given by God
and given by our parents

Each of us has a name
given by our stature and our smile
and given by what we wear

Each of us has a name
given by the mountains
and given by our walls

Each of us has a name
given by the stars
and given by our neighbors

Each of us has a name
given by our sins
and given by our longing

Each of us has a name
given by our enemies
and given by our love

Each of us has a name
Given by our celebrations
And given by our work

Each of us has a name
Given by the seasons
And given by our blindness

Each of us has a name
Given by the sea
And given by
Our death

PRAYER IN BEREAVEMENT

O God, help me think of You in this bitter trial. You know how my heart is torn with grief. In my weakness, tested so severely by my loss, I reach unto You, Father of all life; Give me fortitude to say with Your servant Job, "The Lord has given; the Lord has taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord."

Forgive the thoughts of my rebellious soul. Pardon me in these first hours of my grief, if I question Your wisdom and reach for things too high for me. Grant me the strength to rise above this trial, to bear with humility life's sorrows and disappointments. Be close to me, O God, who comforts the mourners.

-- Amen

The circle of life
Ever dying, ever living.

As we bless the wellspring of life
so we are blessed

MEMORIAL MEDITATIONS

Eternal God, as we recall all our departed and the blessings they bequeathed unto us, we pray Thee to keep their souls united with ours in the bond of life. May our faith, like theirs, be strong, our devotion to the Torah unflinching. For as we identify ourselves with the life, hopes and traditions of an eternal people, we ourselves take on the aspect of eternity.

Father of mercy, in whose hand are the souls of all Thy children, may Thy consolation cheer us as we remember our beloved and honored kinsfolk who have gone to their eternal rest. May we be loyal to the memory of all our brethren, who in every generation sacrificed their lives to sanctify Thy name. We beseech Thee, O Lord, grant us strength to be faithful to their charge while the breath of life is within us.

Help us, O God of our salvation, to bear ourselves faithfully and blamelessly during the years of our pilgrimage on earth. Strengthen us with the steadfast faith in Thee and Thy Torah.

Life is a day that lies between two nights – the night of “not yet” before birth, and the night of “no more,” after death. That day may be overcast with pain and frustration, or bright with warmth and contentment. But, inevitably, the night of death must arrive.

Death is a night that lies between two days – the day of life on earth and the day of eternal life in the world to come. That night may come suddenly, in the blink of an eye, or it may come gradually, with a slowly receding sun.

As the day of life is interlude, so is the night of death an interlude. As the day inevitably proceeds to dusk, so does the darkness inevitably proceed to dawn.

Judaism is a faith that embraces all of life, and death is a part of life. As this faith leads us through moments of joy, so does it guide us through the terrible moments of grief, holding us firm through the complex emotions of mourning, and bidding us turn our gaze from the night of darkness to the daylight of life.

Adapted from Maurice Lamm's
The Jewish Way in Death and Mourning

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

God is my shepherd, I shall not want.

God makes me lie down in green pastures,

Leads me beside still waters,

and restores my soul.

You lead me in right paths for the sake of Your Name.

Even when I walk in the valley

Of the shadow of death

I shall fear no evil, for You are with me;

Your rod and Your staff – they comfort me.

You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You have anointed my head with oil;

my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of God forever.
